note cards and stickers

The idea for the first Barkology greeting card came at a flea market after finding a very, very old studio portrait of a noble pit bull wearing a top hat. This photograph had to be shared. ... and Barkology was born.

Barkology note cards reflect arty sensibility and vintage/retro interests. Exquisitely designed and finely crafted. With a dash of wit. Handsome, yet a bit quirky. But most of all, each card expresses boundless love of dogs. They serve as inspiration, imagery and muse. Each Barkology fold-over is an homage to four-legged best friends everywhere.

barkology® note cards | sets

Years of collecting art, antiques and found objects have shaped and informed the Barkology aesthetic. Fabric remnants, quilts, kimono, samplers, buttons, photos, maps, love letters, etchings, paintings, postcards... Old, interesting things are used in an unexpected way. They are montaged, recolored, painted over or manipulated to create a design that is arresting. And exquisitely composed. The result is a product that is fresh and modern: Barkology note cards.

all cards are blank inside; envelopes are white note card sets are comprised of 8 cards and 8 envelopes each set is packaged in a clear, sealed cello packet and singles are in individual cello sleeves for sets with more than one image, all cards are depicted on the back of the package cards sizes are varied
